Note: Though the assignments of divisions shown here is exactly as shown in the Order of Battle of the United States Land Forces, the Order of Battle of the British Armies in France indicates that the 1st and 6th, as well as the 3 Australian Divisions were shuffled to other corps during this period. In addition, the US divisional histories do not give "field" returns for some of the divisions and indicate that they were not yet in France. This OB should, as a result, be taken as an indication of which divisions were assigned during this period, not as a statement that they were assigned throughout this period.
